BYLAWS : WAIPU COVE RESERVE

PROPOSAL

To approve bylaws made by the Waipu Cove Reserve Board which is responsible for the day to day management of the Waipu Cove Reserve.

BACKGROUND

The Board is a statutory body established in terms of Section 30 of the Reserves Act 1977 and its functions as defined by the Act, are to control and manage the Waipu Cove Recreation Reserve in accordance with the provisions of the Reserves Act 1977. The present Board was appointed for a term of three years from 1 April 1984 expiring on 31 March 1987.

The Reserves Act has provision for a Board to make and pass bylaws as prescribed in the model bylaws gazetted by the Minister of Lands. This particular reserve is developed in part as a camping ground receiving considerable patronage over the statutory holiday periods which necessitates the appointment of a full time caretaker to manage the day to day administration of the reserve. The Board recently considered appointments for a new caretaker and at the same time has sought appropriate authority under the Reserves Act 1977 which would allow the caretaker to enforce any action taken in those functions relating to the daily running of the reserve. It was felt that the model gazetted bylaws adequately cover this aspect and these have been adopted accordingly by the Board. The Board is naturally anxious that these bylaws be approved as soon as possible prior to the Christmas holiday period.

The attached bylaws have been prepared in the form of the model bylaws gazetted pursuant to Section 106(1) and were passed and adopted by the Board at its meeting held on 25 May 1985.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Advertisements appeared in the Northern Advocate on 11 May and 18 May, 1985. No objections were received.

RECOMMENDATION

That the bylaws made by the Waipu Cove Reserve Board on 25 May, 1985 be approved pursuant to Section 108 of the Reserves Act 1977.

The above recommendation is submitted for your approval please and if you concur, three copies of the bylaws are attached for your signature.
